Barba Roja

This is one of the oldest landmarks/restaurants in Manuel Antonio and has an unbeatable ocean view. It is a fun place to relax after a day on the beach, enjoy the sunset, and listen to live music. #### Café Milagro

There are two locations where you can enjoy the same Café Milagro menu: Quepos and Manuel Antonio. In Quepos, you will find their own coffee roaster right next door. In this cozy café, you can enjoy a delicious breakfast, a fabulous lunch, such as the hummus sandwich, and/or an outstanding dinner, like the banana-leaf wrapped red snapper.

Please note that dinner is ONLY offered at the Quepos location. Additionally, both locations offer fresh baked pastries and cakes. Try a slice of the carrot cake, accompanied, of course, with a cup of their famous home-roasted coffee. It is always a good idea to purchase their coffee as a souvenir, or other local gifts in their gift shops.

Quepos location: open 7am-10pm, closed Sundays.

Manuel Antonio location: open 7am-6pm, closed Sundays.

Ronny's Place

Their open air setting creates a real Costa Rican atmosphere. High on a hill overlooking the ocean, Ronnie's Place has it all from magnificent sunset views to a quality menu. Pitchers of sangria are available. Open 2pm-10pm.

Salsipuedes

Right outside the door. The word itself means "go out if you can". Salsipuedes is a "tapas-style" restaurant, meaning they serve small size portions of everything from nachos to sashimi, at great prices. They also offer larger portions of their tapas if you want to make a meal out of them. Open at 4pm-10pm, closed Tuesdays.

El Avion

El Avion (The Airplane) is a fun experience for the whole family. This unique restaurant offers history, along with a tropical dining experience. This aircraft was brought here piece by piece after it had crashed and landed in Panama. It is an icon in the area, you should not miss it. Have a drink in the cockpit or enjoy your dinner overlooking the ocean.
