Jet Luxury Resorts, a company that offers viable financial and travel solutions to both condo hotel/ fractional owners and the rental community alike, saw the opportunity to not only participate in an entertaining musical event, but to also help raise awareness about Donate Life along the way. "Donate Life is a great cause and Jet Luxury Resorts is proud to be a part of the music night to help spread awareness," states Steve Aylsworth, COO of Jet Luxury Resorts. "Koffeehouse brings the music community together for an amazing night while at the same time donating to such a fantastic cause."

This isn't the first time Jet Luxury Resorts and the Koffeehouse Music Production Company have teamed up. In May of 2009, Jet Luxury opened the doors to one of their elite residential properties in Malibu to host a Koffeehouse Music Event. The show helped pave the way for some of LA's premier grassroots music artists to share their innovative work. The upcoming "Evening of Independence" promises to deliver not only more original talent, but also awareness for a good cause along the way.
