Jet Luxury Resorts Lands at Vdara Hotel and Spa

High-end Resort Management Company adds luxury Las Vegas hotel to its burgeoning roster of 4 and 5 star properties, further increasing its footprint in the luxury marketplace.

Jet Luxury Resorts is proud to announce the addition of the Vdara Hotel and Spa at the CityCenter in Las Vegas to its growing roster of 4 and 5 star properties.

Jet Luxury Resorts is one of the few hospitality companies growing within this turbulent market and it is fast transforming the luxury hotel marketplace through a unique business model and evolution of thought. The premiere International Resort Management Company provides the reservation solution to not only owners but to resorts as well by boosting occupancy rates. Jet Luxury Resorts is now able to offer exclusive, luxurious yet affordable Vdara inventory to the rental community through honest, lucrative and dedicated service to Vdara owners. At the Vdara Hotel and Spa, Jet Luxury Resorts guests will receive 20% off market rates.

The Vdara Hotel & Spa is a non-smoking, non-gaming all-suite hotel. With 1,495 suites, it features contemporary interior spaces with modern amenities and services, a rooftop pool and lounge, wellness spa and the vibrant destination restaurant Silk Road, created by award-winning, rising-star chef Martin Heierling. Specializing in upscale executive meetings, corporate and social functions for up to 400 guests, Vdara features over 10,000 square feet of conference space with built-in audiovisual systems with high-definition video projectors. The rooftop pool and lounge provide a distinctive outdoor group venue. Vdara offers the perfect retreat while also providing access to entertainment, gaming, shopping, dining and nightlife of CityCenter and the famous Las Vegas Strip.

The Vdara Hotel & Spa is part of the newly-built $8.5 billion CityCenter, the largest privately-funded construction project in the history of the United States, located on the famous Las Vegas Strip. Completed in 2009, CityCenter is one of the great urban places of the world, a 67-acre city-within-a-city that's destined to redefine the skyline.

“We are very proud and honored to manage rooms at the Vdara,” states Richard Brosal, President of Jet Luxury Resorts. “This is a state of the art property that exemplifies the standard of luxury that Jet Luxury Resorts provides its guests.”

The Vdara is the fifth luxury hotel to join Jet Luxury Resorts this year alone, following the Trump Waikiki, the Trump SoHo, the Setai in Miami Beach and the Kalia Modern Eco-Living Estates in Costa Rica. These notable additions bring not only international exposure but luxurious, five star accommodations to the company’s already illustrious roster. It is also a testament to the future of the trend and to Jet Luxury’s placement therein. To learn more about Jet Luxury Resorts and the Vdara Hotel and Spa, click:
